BOB MASON

Bob,
Only allowed 3 girls at a time in college boy. Try to take it easy but take it.
your idol

Bob,
It has really been great knowing you this past year.
I will always remember those discussions in P.A.D. Keep up your hard work and your will go far in this world.
To bad you got in the wrong club.
With a little work we could have made a good Key clubber out of
you. Good Luck.

John Robert Bennett Jr.
Howard Bennett Jr.
winners. The Key Club will remember you though, as one kid that could have made the top club. (the illustrious Key Club)

I didn't know
you were in the Key Club.
What does it open? H.A.H.A.
You're really a neat guy, and you make pretty good speakers
too. Keep the Young Folks goin' too. the group is good.
Best of luck to you (if you're superstitious (haha)) always.

Jack Tipton a fine guy.

Bob,
Good luck in what ever you may try to do. Have a lot of success. Remember I'll let a card speak for me.
They were a real class.
Have fun next year
and be good a friend.

Bob, I've been together for years
in that part of the state now I don't
it. I don't think I could make it alone
do you? I wish you a partner. But that's anyway. Love,

ACTIVITIES

Faculty; Administration Provide Humor for

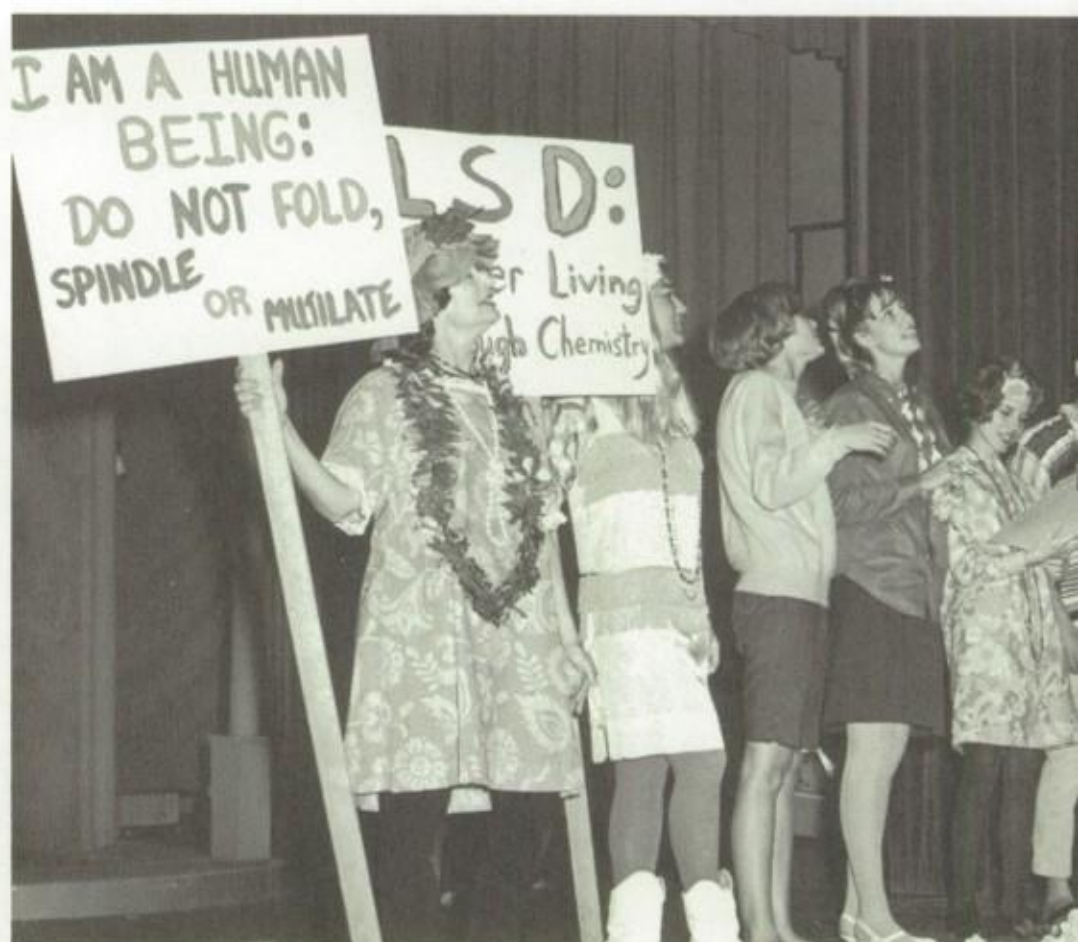

"An evening on T.V." set the theme for the faculty frolics of '67. The production's goals are twofold; to entertain students and acquire funds for the Sunshine Fund, which is responsible for cards and flowers when an illness or tragedy strikes a faculty member.

Teachers of the various departments presented a program of skits and sketches all in conjunction with this year's T.V. jibe theme. Variety shows, movie programs and news documentaries featured a cast composed of teachers and administrative officials and presented a humorous note.

Faculty frolics also gives teachers the chance to give their impression of student life as they see it and prove teachers are human.

The idea of faculty frolics came into existence during Leto's first year of operation in the new school plant with the production of "Leto A Go Go." Since then it has become a yearly tradition through the efforts of the faculty and support of the student body.

Faculty frolics is one of several traditional events set by both teachers and students.

Girls Add Spice to C.E.C.F.'s Calendar

COVER GIRL
Doris Carney

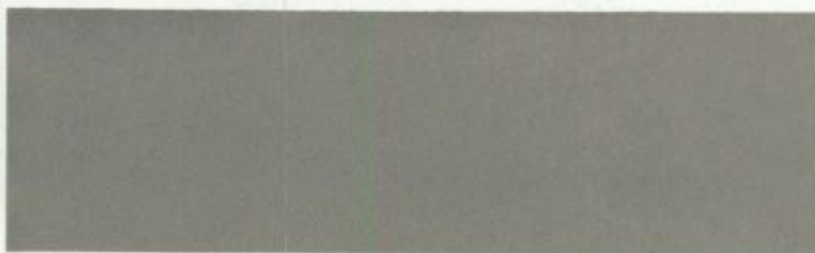

A yearly project of the Cooperative Education Department is a calendar which features thirteen chosen visions of loveliness gracing the cover, along with each month of the year. Made possible through the sponsorships of Bay Area businessmen and firms, the calendar has come into its second year of publication.

Chosen by review before businessmen and groups of judges, the girls are judged on poise, beauty and personality in addition to an acceptable average in class. The sponsorships are used to meet printing costs.

The calendar provides funds for the C.E.C.F., and also serves as a student memo on which dates or "Special Events" can be marked and remembered for future use.

The calendar is a tradition which the C.E.C.F. has established at Leto, and shall be continued throughout the years.

Mr. Roger Bell sponsors the C.E.C.F. and the calendar.

Plays Provide Both

Comedy and Drama

The players wore gaudy colors and painted faces, but the message cut the air like a knife.
Through the drama comes life personified, not always ending in rainbows and gold.

Night to Fly Builds Spirit

The auditorium was a chaotic, electrifying and colorful madness of spirits high with hopes of victory the following night with Hillsborough High School.

The entire school was put into fits of laughter and cheers. A varied and stimulating program of skits by service clubs, music by the band, cheers by the cheerleaders and spirit by the student body made the night to fly a spectacular success.

Skits depicting the football players through satirical acts and the big hex on the enemy's team provide a foundation upon which the program is based.

And as everyone stood for the Alma Mater he was sure he felt stronger pride in Leto.

Crowns Queen at First Homecoming

Someone said, "Homecoming;" everyone shuddered, thought awhile and set to work, determined to meet the challenge.

It was met . . .

A queen was crowned,
the team stomped to victory,
and spirit was 'flying high.'

The night was 'out of sight.'

In the end, a mixed chorus
of sighs, sobs and laughs, sang to a challenge . . .

A challenge met successfully.

Varsity Creates Image, as Potential Threat

This year's Falcons were rather inexperienced and did not do as well as the previous season, but put all-out effort into the games. During the season, they tied Chamberlain and King. The Falcons had losses to Winter Haven, Plant, Hillsborough, Robinson, Middleton, and Lakeland. They beat Jesuit and Brandon. Coaches for the team were Salty Burns, Chuck Robinson, Larry Wagers, and Jerry Durnin. The team doctor was H. Rivera. Manager was Ken Nordyke.

Junior Varsity Cagers Strive to

J.V. basketball is good experience for later competition. Hard work paid off for Leto's J.V. team. Players such as Rick Herceg and Danny Tracy gathered up quite a number of points between them during the season. Coach Tappe, the new addition to the coaching staff, put in a lot of hard work and learned some of the problems a coach can have.

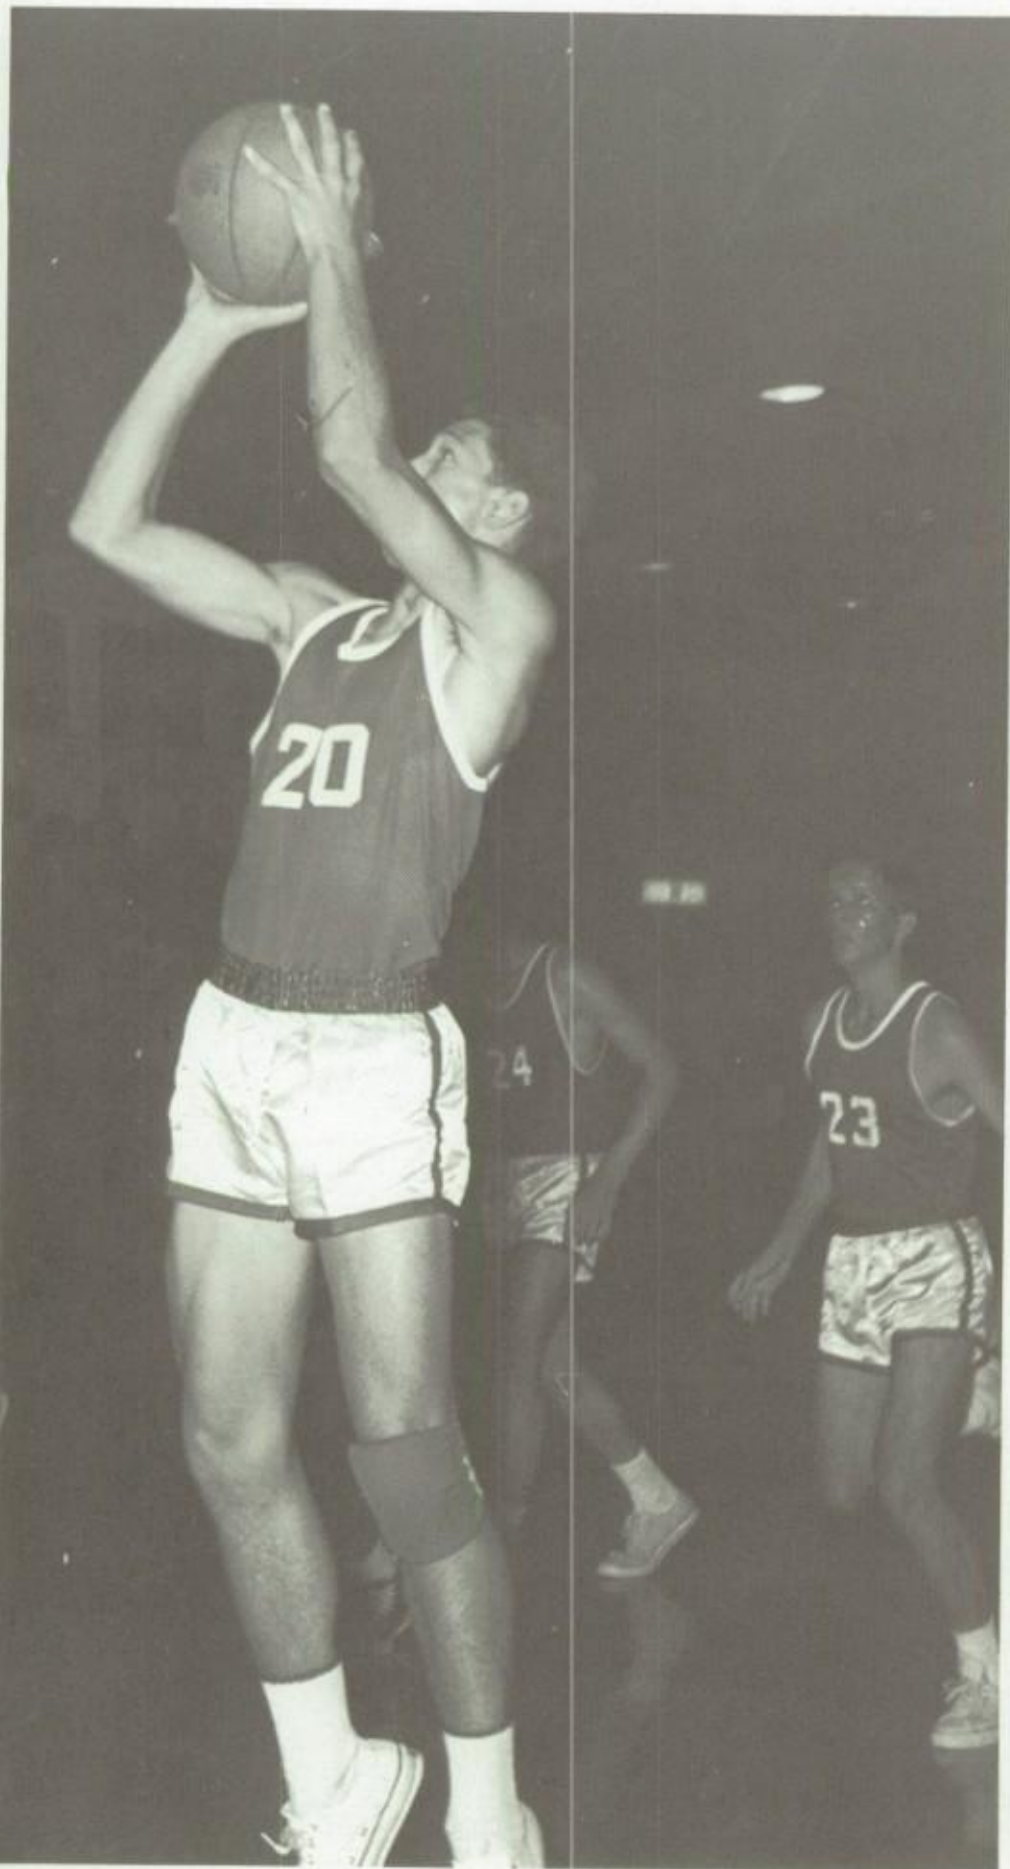

Steve Chastain throws one in from out of bounds.

Leto's tennis players worked hard to give the Falcons a showing in the city. The tennis players deserve a lot of credit for their dedication to the sport and to Leto. Under the hard times the tennis team did a fine job.

Jack Cribbs goes up ready to slam one.

Dennis Smith is ready to score another point.

Leto Trackmen Beat Paths to Victory

Trackmen at Leto worked hard to overcome the many setbacks they encountered, but natural ability and the desire for competition kept many participants of the team hours after school working hard to better themselves. Among the seniors on the team are sprinters Dennis Smith, Gary Huffman and pole vaulter Roy Welch. Many juniors will be returning next year, and hopes of a successful team are in order. Sophomores contributed greatly to the success of Leto's track team. Gary Tucker, Danny Hill, and Danny Crowley were among the sophomores in the winners' circle. Leto's track team did their best in the area meets they participated in, and for this reason Falcons must be proud of them.

Falcon Baseball Team Has Good Season

The Leto baseball team had a very successful season this year. Playing about twenty games, they played half of their games away, and the other half at our new home field, McFarlane Park. The team had eighteen team members, with eleven seniors, seven juniors, and two sophomores. They had nine lettermen from the previous season.

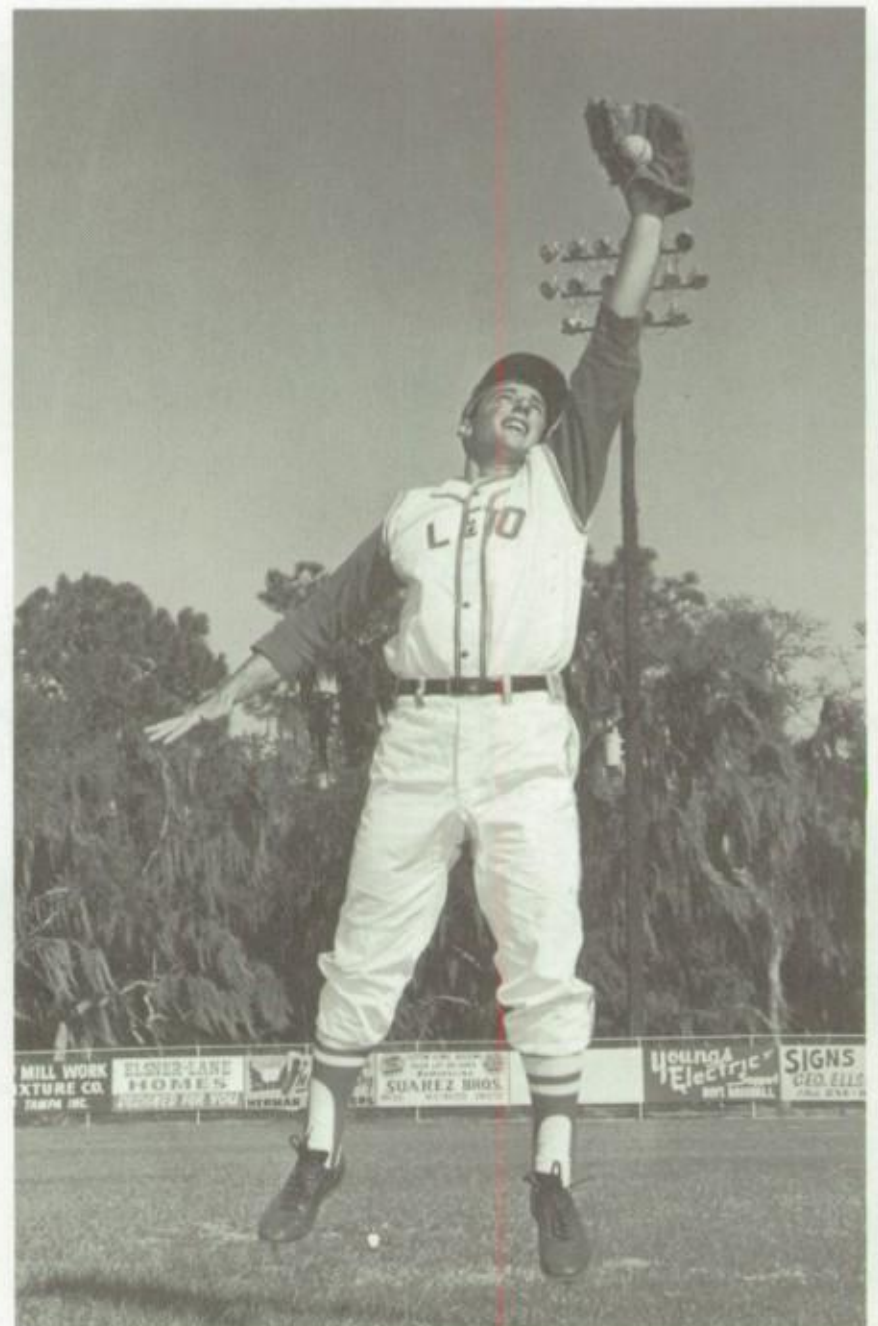

The team coach was Billy Howell. On the team's pitching staff were Mike Sparks, Gary Tucker, and Tom Figga.

Swimmers Defeat Chamberlain, Boca Ciega

The Leto High swimming team had a fairly successful season this year. With Bill Woolwine as this year's coach, the boys' team was captained by Doug Jones and the girls' team captain was Nancy Kelley. The team had many returning lettermen and members.

In the Robinson Relays both teams placed second with the girls' relay team winning 4 out of 4 events they entered. Both teams also placed second in the Leto Invitational Swim Meet. The swim team also scored important victories over Chamberlain and Boca Ciega.

had the pleasure of knowing these past two years.
You a great fellow and a real nut.

I can't believe how much more because I'll miss getting with you. But remember you too

make a great couple. I hope
it works.
Keep in touch.
God Bless & keep you safe.

Love always,

N.H.S. Members Help Out During Walkout

"Leadership, character, scholarship and service are ideals which members of the National Honor Society put into practice throughout their years in high school. Excelling in all phases of academic achievement is a task which requires these ideals and then some. Students chosen must not only measure up to the Honor Society ideals, but they must live by them or forever be called hypocrites. For a true honor student cares for himself, his school, and everyone he comes into contact with. He must give of himself willingly in times of need. Sponsored by Mrs. Marie Heller and Mrs. Alex Allen, N.H.S. helped sell and distribute underclass pictures and taught classes.

Newly inducted members promise to uphold the Society's creed.

Chuck Marsh has some difficulty in exchanging an empty bowl for a full one.

Jackie Tabbutt finds her salad to be a real treat.

Spanish Honor Society Credits Proficiency

To speak the English language alone proficiently is a major accomplishment, but to be proficient in two is exceptional. To credit this exceptional accomplishment in Spanish, the student merits installation in the Spanish Honor Society. The student meeting the academic requirements and taking Spanish is eligible to become a member. Mrs. Mary Natole sponsors the Spanish Honor Society.

Mrs. Natole, sponsor of the Spanish Honor Society, has made plans with her students for this club since Leto's first year.

ICC Coordinates, Promotes Club Activity

Sylvia Matthews talks about the proposed carnival.

All club activities are handled by the Inter-club Council. Composed of the vice presidents of each club, principal, and student council president acting as chairman, the council's main purpose is to maintain an orderly club activities schedule. Mr. Frank Scaglione sponsors the Inter-club Council.

The ICC is well represented at all Student Council and Legislature meetings.

Kiwanettes Give Helping Hand to Orphans

A main project of the Kiwanettes and Key Club is putting up the Christmas tree in the main hall.

The Kiwanettes, female counterpart to the Key Club, have a synonymous motto; "We Serve". From the beginning of the '67-'68 school year, the Kiwanette Club has engaged itself in obtaining its objective; service to the school and community. Keeping Leto's blackboards in a clean state is one of their projects. They donated a decorated tree to the childrens' home at Christmas, took orphans to games and held a car wash.

Latin Club Retreats to Days of Romans

Sherry Abramson discusses newly formed club with Mrs. Heller.

This year Latin Clubbers had a chance to re-live the grandeur of a once great civilization when they held a real Roman banquet complete with the togas. This club also examines the culture and customs of the Romans as an added supplement to the study of the language.

Charter members of the Latin Club elect their first officers.

Choral Ensembles Draw Musical Honors

Variety and vocal techniques have established a high standard of excellence in the vocal music department. Vocal music, one of the universal languages, is handled and directed by Mr. Kenneth Marshall. Throughout the year, vocal ensembles have performed at assemblies, civic programs and concerts. The Concert Choir, Madrigal Singers, and Girls Choir perform in and out of school.

The Young Folk, their newest innovation, sing standard folk music, along with contemporary folk songs.

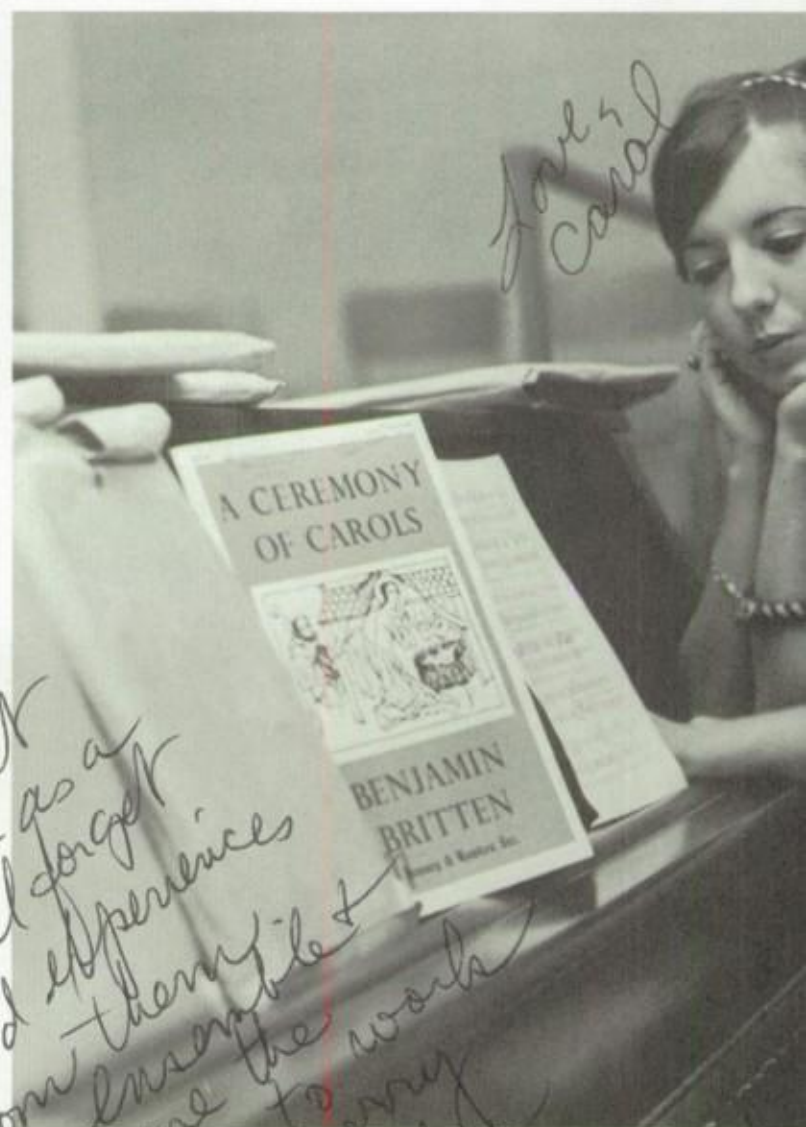

This year the vocal ensembles had the opportunity to perform in the Kiwanis Chorale, a program featuring the Young Folk. All choral groups took part in the district contests, drawing additional honors.

Frank Traina and Roger Carroll take part in class singing.

Mr. Marshall directs a choral concert.

Carol Wiezorek and Kathy Wilson practice informally.

Bob,
Best wishes and
good lucks to you.
We have had some new trying experiences this year and I feel that we all have learned from the situation.
I feel you can do a great career. I hope we can all about our past bad experiences and I feel that all the groups were the work finest group I am sorry with. We started off the money for Keep me informed on what you

Falcon Band Maintains Its High Standards

"Versatile, stimulating, and entertaining," words which best describe Leto's superior-rated Falcon Band, are comments frequently heard around school or anywhere the band has been.

Their marching and performing proficiencies have earned them superior ratings at both state and district competitions this year. This year's activities include many performances, concerts and marching activities, at games and in parades.

Falcon Majorettes Perform with Band

Head majorette Pam Jones performs during half-time.

Peppy Doris Carney always has a smile.

They can be seen prancing or marching out with perfect precision and grace. Marching and twirling takes a lot of intense practice with the band and also by themselves. The majorette never loses her cool, however, and wherever they are marching you can see their big smiles.

Legend Is Official Student Newspaper

Legend staff members belong to a peculiar breed of humans known, among journalistic circles, as "Downright nasty newspeople."

The Legend has maintained its high standards of journalistic excellence. News, human interest, sports and editorial comments are printed in hopes that the reader may benefit in some way from it.

Through these "Downright nasty newspeople," comes a truthful honest and refreshing approach to a newspaper.

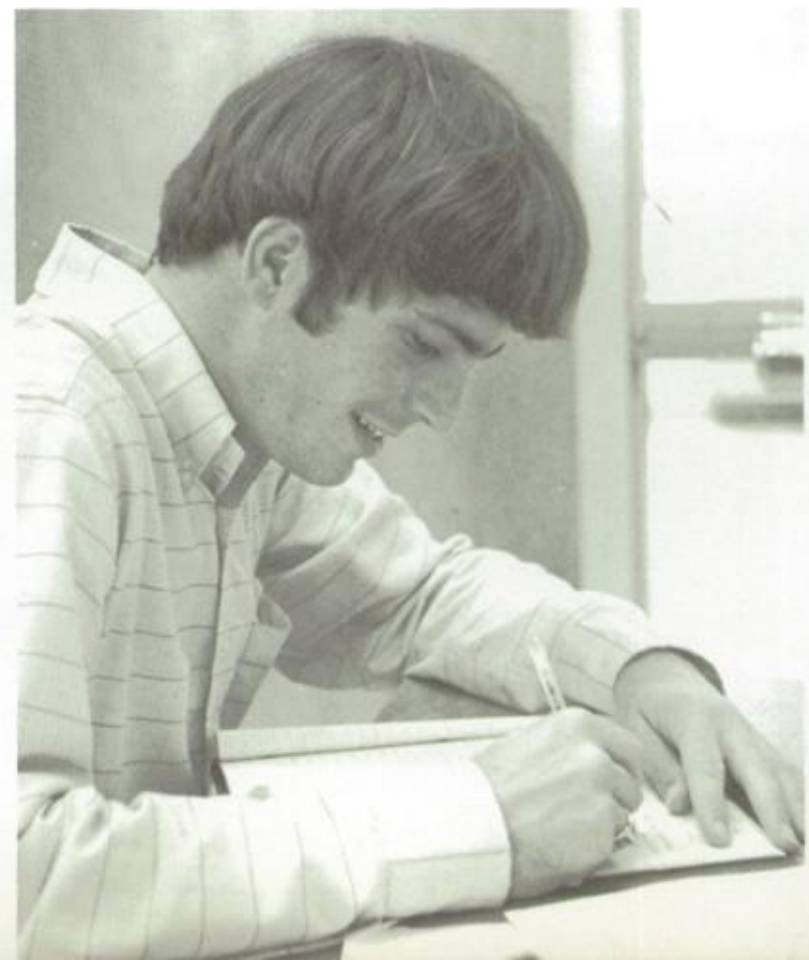

Joe Cano and Susan Williams call patrons to make sure they have correct ads to put in the newspaper.

Section editors Debbie Stillons, Gail Maroon, and Susan Yoho work together.

Bob Wickham, Editor in Chief, types his "witty" editorial.

Quill Contains Student Literary Works

Mr. Allan Manning, Leto's literary magazine sponsor, talks with several members of the Quill Staff.

Displaying students' creative, poetic and literary talents is The Quill, Leto's "Lit. Mag." A collection of poems, essays, short stories and other literary works, The Quill expresses the thoughts and moods of student poets and future authors. The Quill Staff is responsible for sorting, editing material and maintaining good taste in the material published. Mr. Allan Manning is advisor of The Quill and a new teacher in the English Department.

Kathy Palonis, Toni Swindle Co-Editors

Linda Duncan, Vickie Keebler, Connie Williams, Nora Avery and Ronald Lightfoot have a friendly chat after screening submitted creative writings.

The Falconettes Add to School Spirit

Putting power and volume into the cheering by the students is the Falconette Pep Squad. Continuing in its second year is this spirited group which adds spirit to all athletic events. With the cheerleaders, Falconettes aid building up morale, for the team and students.

Brenda Jones and Regina Harris cheer.

The Pep Squad rallies together at an afternoon assembly where they raise school spirit to its height.

Frank Scaglione Heads Leto High

Mr. Scaglione glances up for a brief moment from his job as principal.

Maintaining his high standards in leadership and outstanding service, Mr. Scaglione has always proven his point: Leto is for real!

In his second year as Leto's Principal, Mr. Scaglione never stops working for Leto.

Frank Scaglione

Along with his many other jobs as principal of Leto High School, Mr. Scaglione takes time to discuss problems facing Mr. Nelson as a teacher.

Mr. Holmes, Mr. Dawkins Aid Principal

Without the help of Mr. Dawkins and Mr. Holmes, the job of Principal would undoubtedly be an impossible task. Mr. Marvin Dawkins, Leto High's Assistant Principal, carries on the coordinating of all student activities. Mr. Holmes, Director of Occupation Education, maintains the Occupational Education Department's many programs. He's a "Three year man" at Leto and knows his school well. Working together, these two men make a valuable team on Leto's Administrative Staff.

Mr. Dawkins makes all the important announcements that keep our student body and faculty informed.

Mr. Robert Holmes guides our vocational department.

Throughout all the jobs of an assistant principal, Mr. Dawkins always manages a smile.

Deans Have Responsibility for Students

Mrs. Mahin, dean of girls, discusses one of the many problems facing office assistant Lynn Harrah.

Keeping a watchful, but understanding eye on Leto's student body is a long and often sad task. Giving help to lost and oftentimes misguided Letonians is the primary purpose for the Deans. Without their Deans the school would face the gigantic problem of student discipline.

Disciplining those "out of bounds" students is just one of the multiples of jobs that Mr. Glochick does.

Honest, Mr. Glochick can smile too!

Leto High Moving Smoothly

Mrs. Harmon keeps all the paperwork running smoothly in the Dean's Office.

In order to keep a good school running efficiently, there has to be someone to do paperwork, take fees, make announcements, and the million other "Little" things which need to be done—with the pounding of typewriters, never ending phone calls, noise, the staff has their job.

English Creates New Horizons for Student

English is much more than mere grammar, literature and composition. It also encompasses an in depth study of man's past, a look at his cultures, behavior and social customs. Versatile, eager and interested teachers, willing to work with students, make such a program available. Communication, a major concept in the English field, is shown to students at the sophomore level. It is constantly in use all through their high school, and college years. Independent study, a relatively new method is in use by Mrs. Leah Hackney.

From Europe, Mr. Wilson explains, comes the basis of our culture.

An open book, the sign of knowledge being learned and put to use.

A three year program in social studies consists of world history, American History, and P.A.D. This program helps the student to a better understanding of world affairs, wars, and various patterns of history.

Social and economic patterns, as well as the lessons learned through man's mistakes are all elements on the periodic table of history. It is hoped that a combined study and application of history to this world today will make it a better one.

Child Care Enables Student Understanding

Child care consists of more than playing "Synthetic mamma" or the "One hour babysitters." It involves understanding the child, his actions, motivation and behavior.

To better understand the young is part of a modern concept of better child-adult relations.

Mrs. Sperry, child care teacher, enjoys the actions of some small child under her supervision.

Pat Parton keeps a child entertained as her classwork.

Ken Marshall Directs Leto's Choruses

Leto's Vocal Music Department has something to offer to a student with musical talent, the ability to sing and the desire to express himself with others.

Out of the different organizations within the Vocal Music Department, a musically minded student may find a hard choice in deciding which to join. The vocal groups sing for programs throughout the year, also competing in choral contests.

Edith Dickerson studies her music.

Instrumental Music Led By Mr. Herron

To put on their fine half-time shows, the band puts in many hours of practice and more practice.

Leto High School's Falcon Band maintained their high standard of musical excellence and fine marching precision through the colorful halftime shows during football season. They continue playing and marching at school functions, assemblies, parades and statewide competition.

The majorettes give an added sharpness to the Falcon Band's appearance at a football game, or anywhere the band marches.

Mr. Herron leads the band as it rehearses till they reach the peak of perfection before a performance.

Cosmetology Prepares Beauticians for

Cosmetology is one of Leto's occupational courses. Designed primarily for girls interested in vocations after graduation, cosmetology prepares girls for a future job as a beautician, a manicurist or beauty culturist upon graduation.

Through this two year course young women can secure a good-paying and satisfying job.

Professional "hair care" performed by Aida Carbonell is a highlight of Leto's Cosmetology Department.

Practicing washing, setting, and styling hair is Sherry Freeman, cosmetology student.

Manicuring too, is a basic part of beauty.

Electrical Wiring, Heating and

As part of Leto's occupational program, electrical wiring and heating and refrigeration give training in future professions which hold great promise and a good salary.

These two year courses give a student the chance to use what he knows in order to get a job right after graduation.

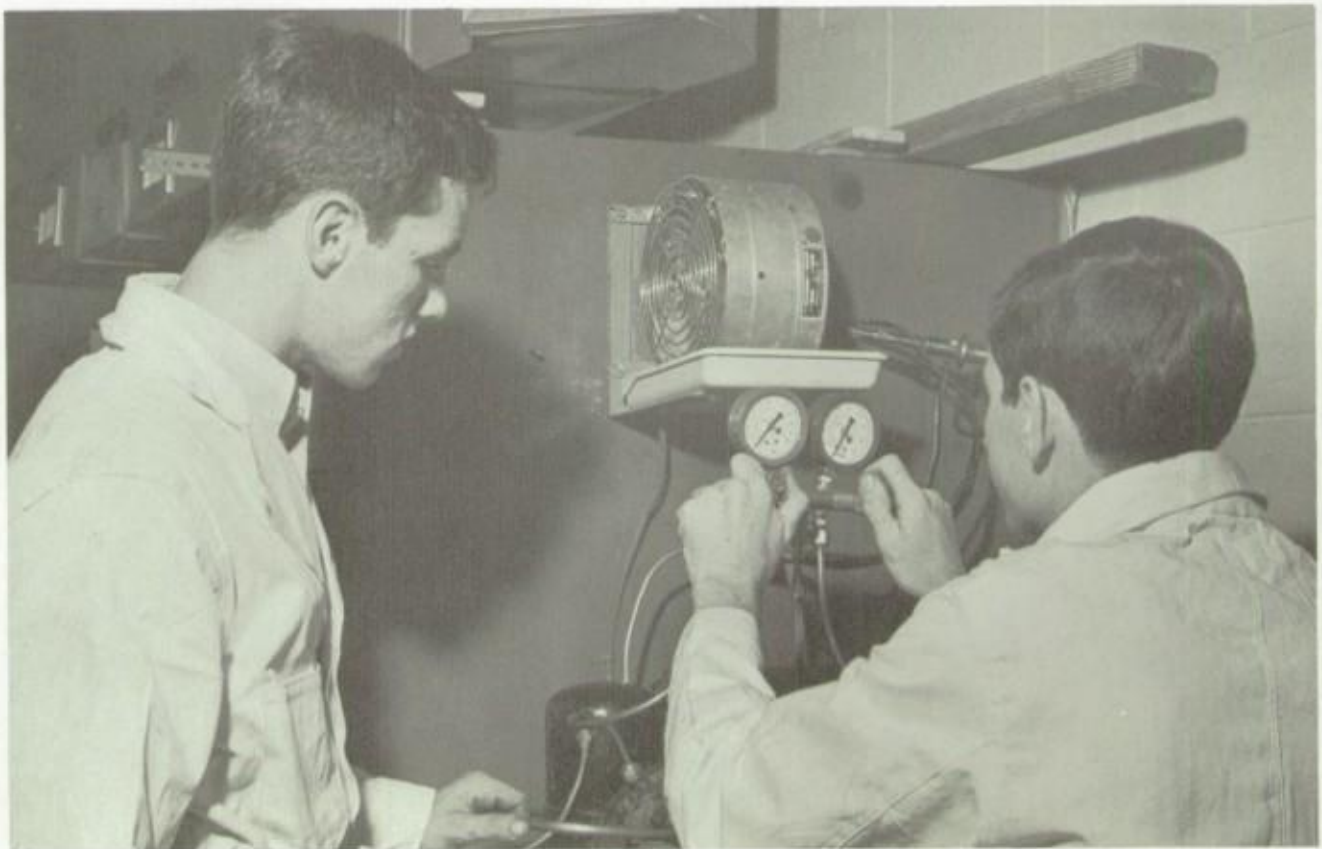

Plying coils in electrical wiring are Charles Owen and John Crandon.

Mr. Briggs lectures on electricity.

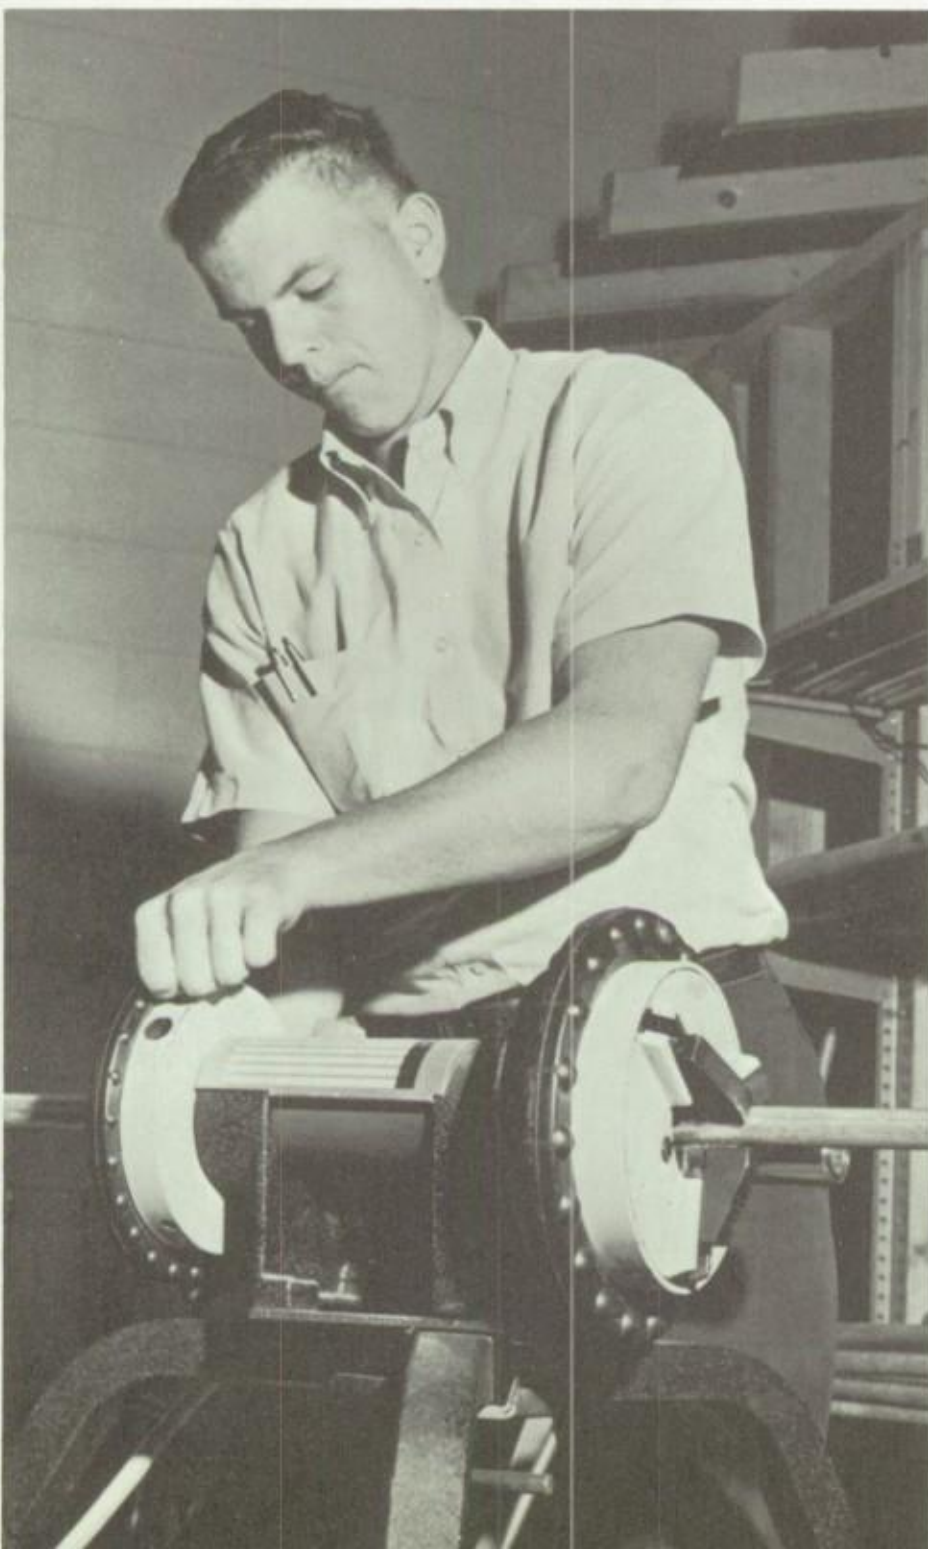

Watching these gauges is an important part of their learning for Richard Balo and Doug Anderson.

Refrigeration Train Future Technicians

Gordon Shepherd and John Madison work together to finish their assigned work on time.

Bill Saunders learns how to solder electrical wires together.

Auto Shops Train Mechanics, Upholsterers

Without skilled mechanics or good auto upholsters, motorists would be left "hoofing it" or in states of wheellessness.

Leto's auto mechanics course, in combination with the newest course of auto upholstery, provides an excellent preparation for high-paying jobs in future years. Both courses are supervised by expert teachers.

Just a part of the auto mechanics shop.

Mr. O'Neal demonstrates to John Howard and Mark Duffy the proper techniques of auto upholstery.

There are "dirty-dirty" parts to mechanics as Bob Curry discovers, but that's life.

Classroom observation, besides the actual work, is a necessary part of auto mechanics which is taught by Mr. Jardon.

Future Lawmen Learn

A three year course of law enforcement, the only one of its kind on the high school level, prepares young men for future careers in policework, public service, or any other phase of law enforcement; the first police "Cadets" are '68 seniors who started as sophomores.

Ray Purvis demonstrates how to frisk the "arrested man," Steffan Tom.

Billy Fairbanks practices his judo holds on Garrett Griffin.

Buddy Lopez receives his instructions on Law Enforcement.

Tech Drafting, Woodshop Enables

Technical drafting allows the students to uncover hidden talents in the fields of engineering, architectural talents or any technical diagramming.

In the wood shop, future carpenters and wood craftsmen work on projects applying knowledge gained from class instruction.

The occupational courses such as technical drafting and wood shop are added aids for students to prepare for a possible career in either area.

Boys put their skills to work in wood shop.

Mr. Paulson, wood shop instructor, demonstrates to his students the proper care and handling of the shop tools.

Students to Use Skills

Explaining to Kenny Olsen the correct manner of drawing is Mr. Shell.

Gray Ladies, Custodians Serve School

When students step on glass, or require quick sleep between classes, they always go to see the Gray Ladies. They provide comfort with first aid in aiding ailing Falcons. Custodial maintenance, one of the "Never Ending" tasks, keeps the custodians busy, Leto clean.

This custodian takes a brief rest.

Mr. Diaz keeps the patio very clean.

Mrs. Burge takes Connie John's temperature when she entered the clinic feeling a little ill.

Lively Council Governs Sophomore Class

Juniors Prepare for New Heights at Leto

Juniors rise from Sophomores; one time "Wise fools" nurtured into the second stage of their high school growth process, almost freed from the cocoons of formative developmental study, yet progressively making headway toward the coveted spot of Senior. Taking up the "call of the Falcon," and preparing for the days of Seniordom, Juniors look to their future with mixed anticipations and anxiety.

They are always asking; asking those questions which Juniors throughout the years have been asking themselves; "Who am I? Where am I going?" The "Class of '69," a unique composite of '66 Freshmen and '67 sophs, is the calling card of a spirited Junior Class; a class which has made tremendous strides in the past; a class which will carry Leto High closer to greatness.

IN MEMORIAM

ROBERT RIGG

NOVEMBER 1951-NOVEMBER 1967

LIFE IS A NARROW VALE BETWEEN THE COLD AND BARREN PEAKS OF TWO ETERNITIES.

WE STRIVE IN VAIN TO LOOK BEYOND
THE HEIGHTS.

WE CRY ALOUD—AND THE ONLY ANSWER IS THE ECHO OF OUR WAILING CRY.

FROM THE VOICELESS LIPS OF THE UNREPLYING DEAD THERE COMES NO WORD.

BUT IN THE NIGHT OF DEATH, HOPE SEES
A STAR, AND LISTENING, LOVE CAN HEAR THE RUSTLING OF A WING.

HE WHO SLEEPS HERE, WHEN DYING,
MISTAKING THE APPROACH OF DEATH
FOR THE RETURN OF HEALTH, WHISPERED
WITH HIS LASTEST BREATH, "I AM BETTER, NOW."

LET US BELIEVE, IN SPITE OF DOUBTS
AND FEARS, THAT THEIR DEAR WORDS ARE TRUE OF ALL THE COUNTLESS DEAD.

ROBERT G. INGERSOLL

Who's Who Honors Talented Leto Seniors

In every high school are the students who, in addition to a high scholastic ability, excel in a particular class. Because of outstanding achievements in their fields, they have earned the honor of being chosen to represent that particular department among the "Who's Who" of the year.

These students have devoted their time and themselves, not for the grades but because of their desire to achieve a high degree of proficiency and skill.

Bob) had We've had a lot of fun these last three years and I hope we will get together a lot in the future.
I guess you're what you want would call my best friend. (Gum) though you are a queen. We've raised a little hell but not what you would call a fantastic amount. I hope we can guess I'll never forget the great few years.
a little bit and everybody. We've accomplished one of these days we'll take a trip to your think, only be pure and I really get along that I'm always right.
lot smarter, greater, etc. So long you down yankees! I hope we'll see each other for a long time. Best of luck always,
Raph

GO GATORS

Bob,

I think you're a great guy. You've got a great personality and lots of "problems." I like to help you out, though. I know you had a good time at the prom and you've got lots of good memories. Now you have to go out on your own pretty soon. I guess we'll always remember you in your blue jeans. When that's dressing up! Don't let your problems get you down. Have a wonderful life. Be good & God bless.

Love,
Linda Oke

Bob,
 I've been great
 you as a friend
 I've had some bad times in music but I'm sure will only remember the good times. Take care of yourself & be good.
 Love ya, Bingham

SECOND FLOOR

GROUND FLOOR

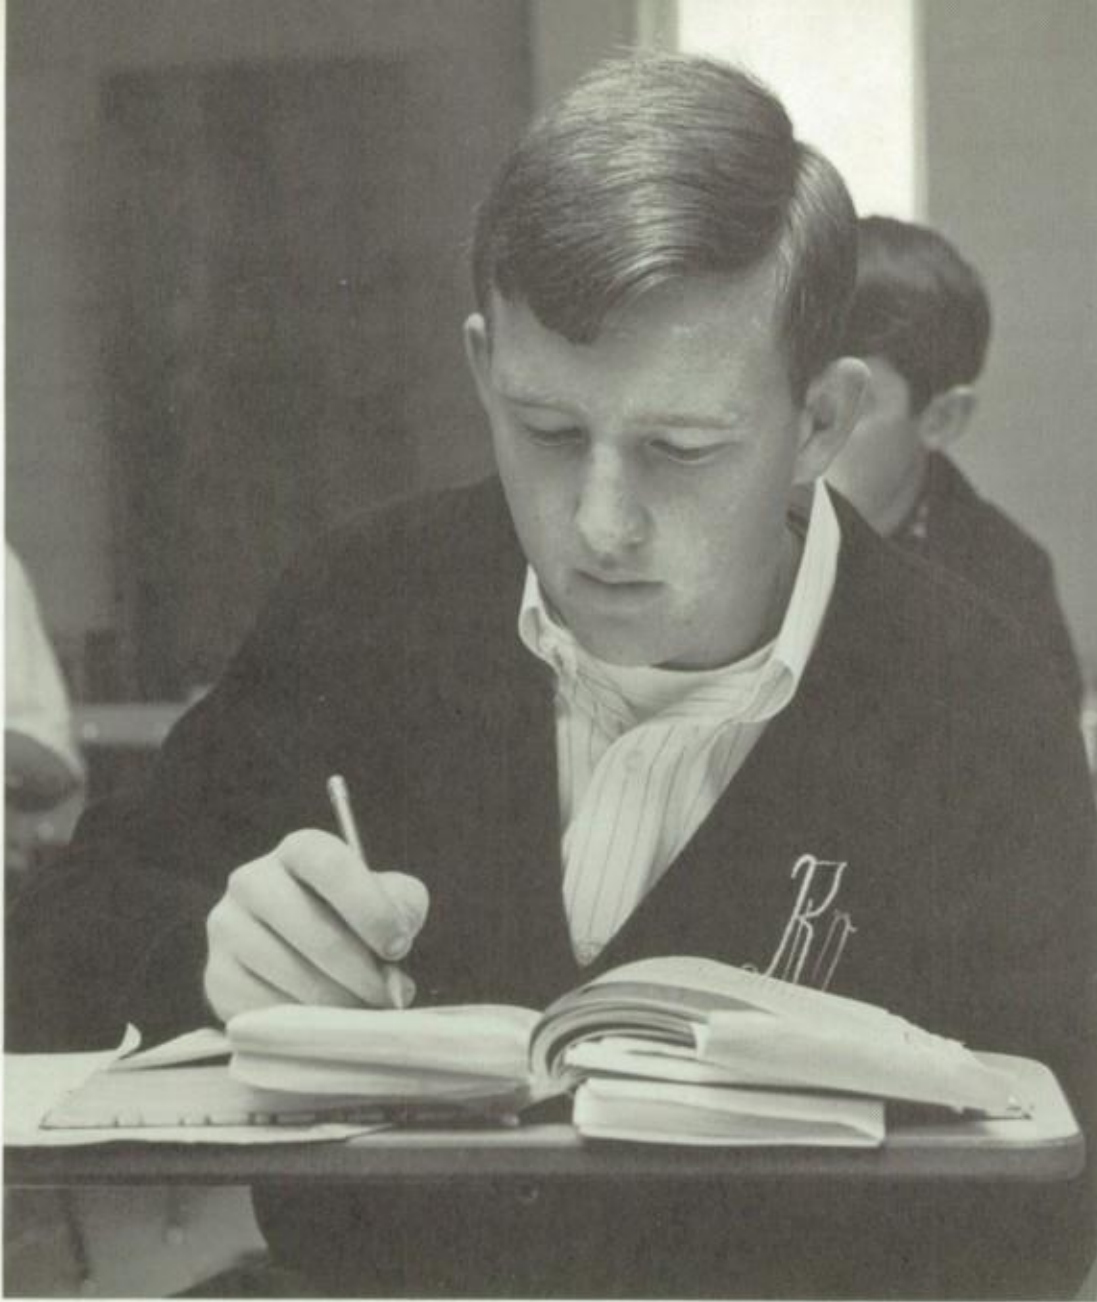

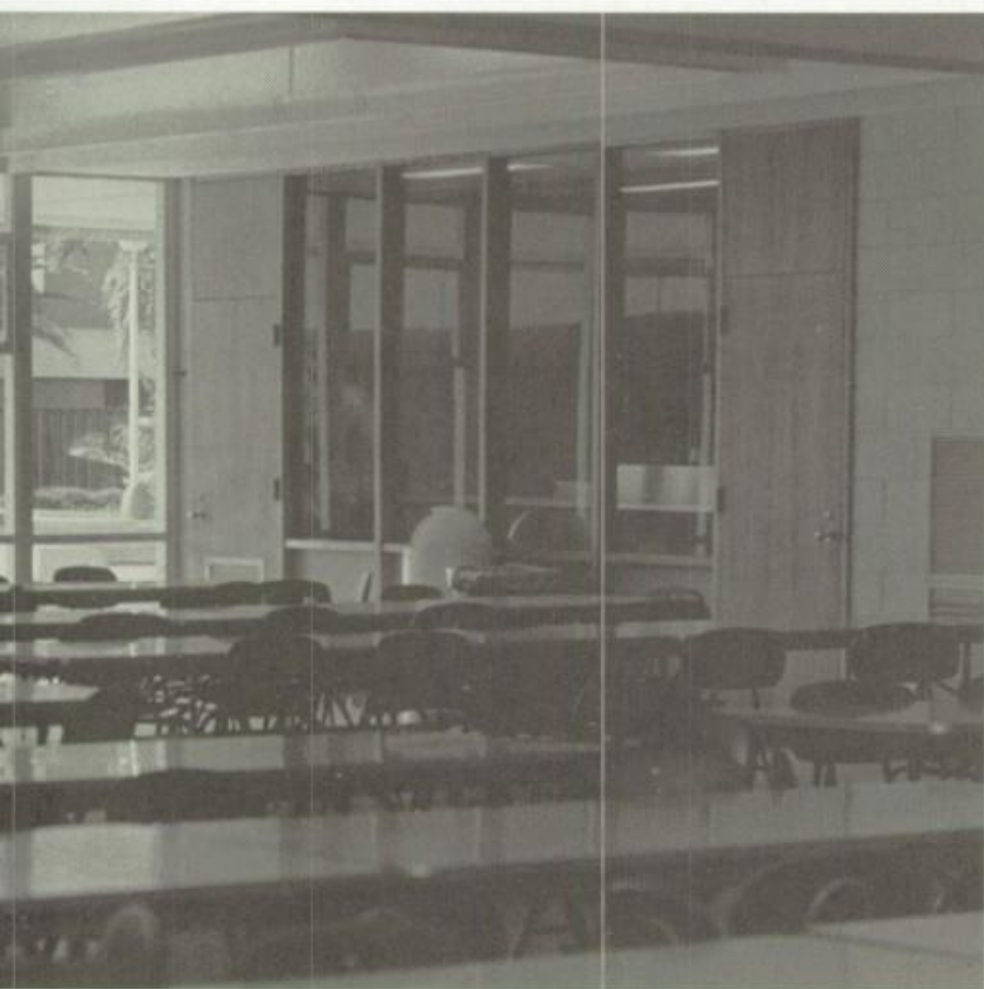

When the time has finally come for you to stop, when all is over and done with and ends almost as suddenly as it had begun and you allow your mind to wander through the garden of your past, you see what's happened or what could have happened during a short span of time, pleasantly packed with the bitters and sweets of growing, learning and being a part of it all, you're filled with assorted joy and sadness pride and shame, and only then you really feel what you've done was worth your while; only then you see how valuable and priceless the past really is and forever will be as long as you remember; for what's done is done, never to return except when one looks at it for what it's worth to him. For these just beginning it offers hope of better things to come; For those leaving, it can never be erased, replaced or substituted by another thought. These have been times of change which gold nor silver cannot buy.

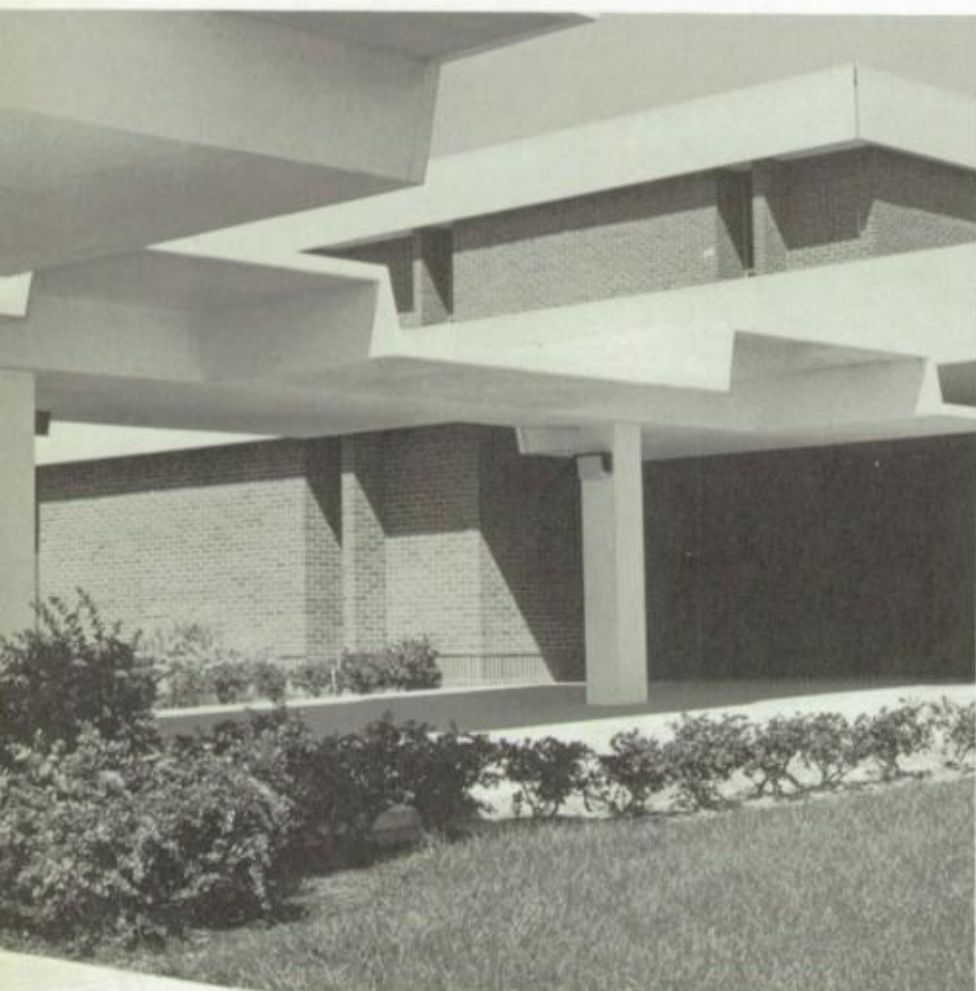

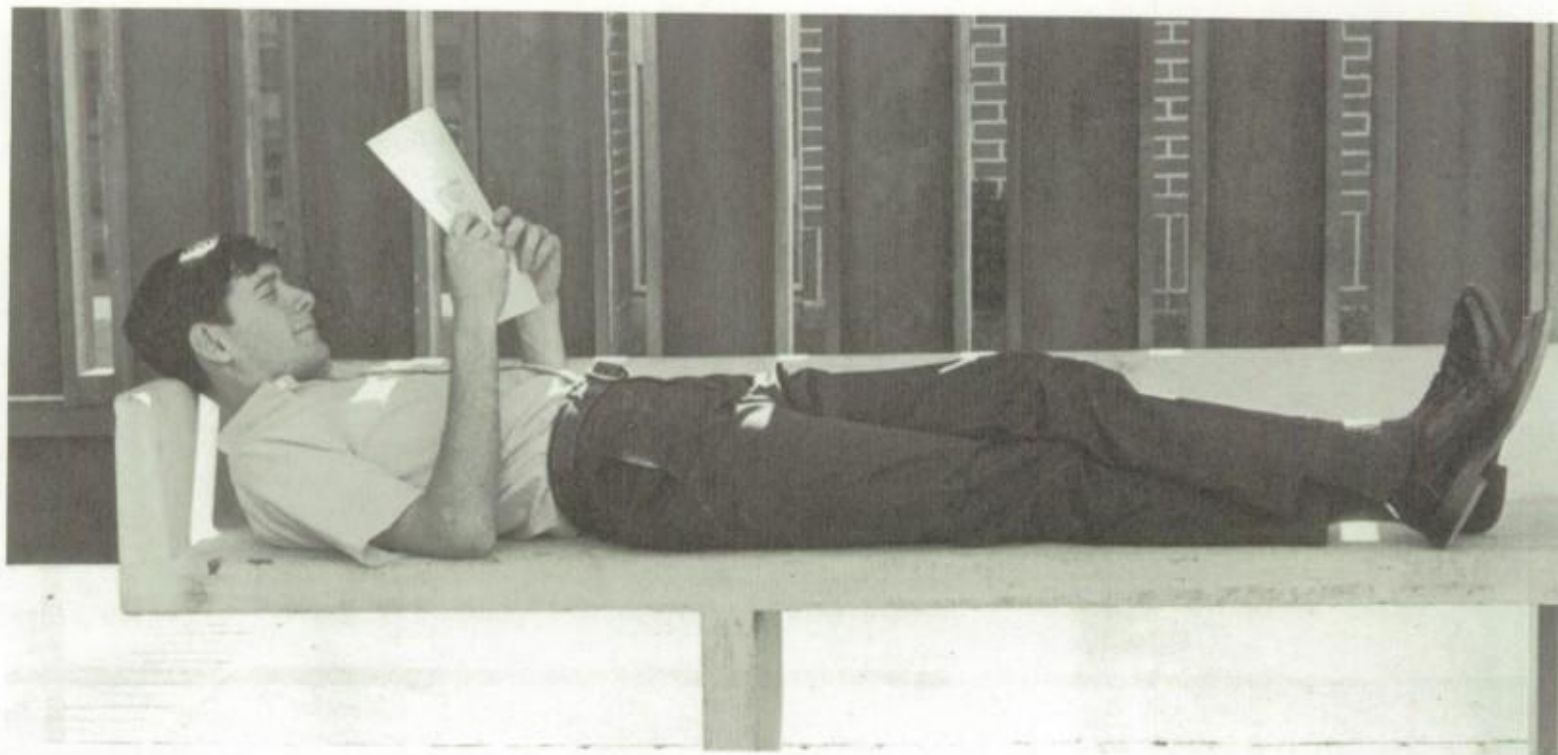

Rooms once jammed with bods 'n books are soon to be empty; to fill again with new faces, thoughts, ideas and the people who make it all worthwhile: teachers. Without its teachers a school is a mere brick hulk, without its driving force so vital that without it chaos, disorder and sadness prevails; a ship left to the inevitable elements of uncertainty, forever running helter-skelter through the churning, boiling seas of ignorance and despair. Though they seem inhuman their care is great, for their lifeblood pulsates through every hall, room and student passing through the big blue door of Leto.

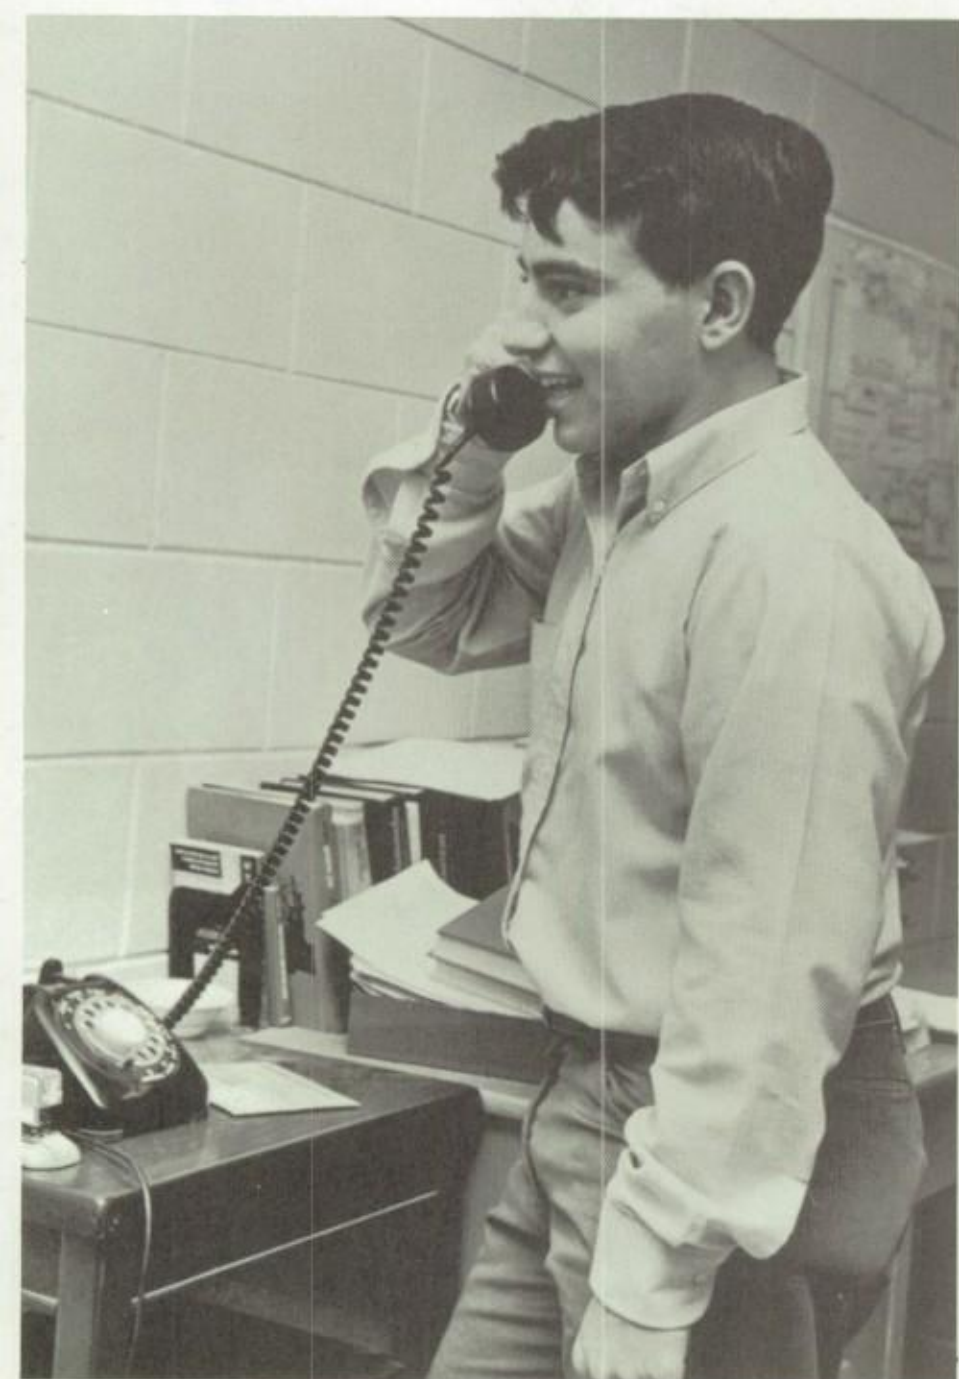

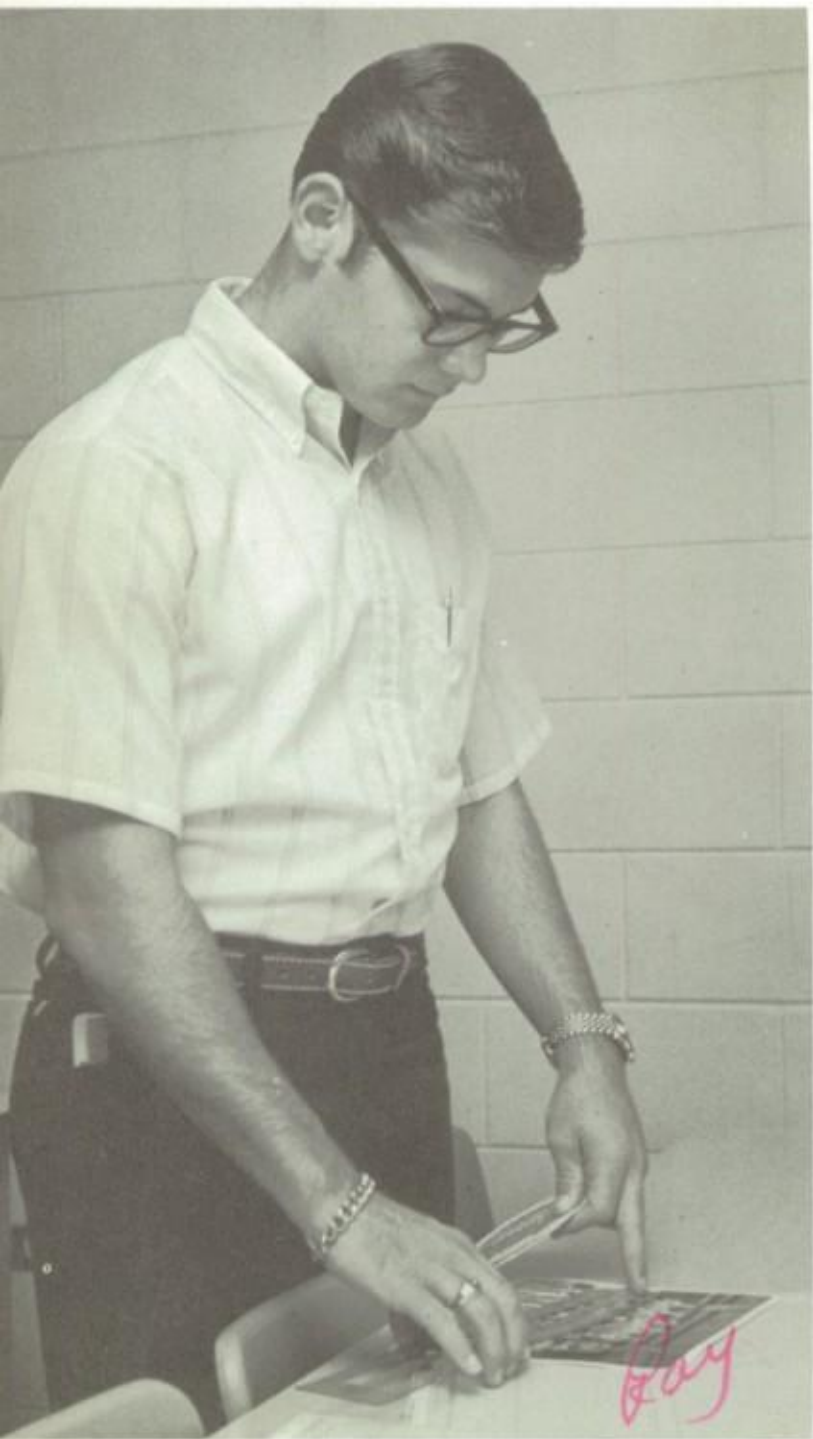

'67-68: chaos, conflict; disagreement, compromise, Southeast Asia escalates into full-scale war while ghettos burn, and something is finally done about it.
 U.S. greenbacks take a trip to Europe, while Dr. Leary takes one of his own with a host of followers.
 While Priscilla Pureheart worries about morals
 they change; Jefferson Airplane flies Trans-Love.
 Disneyland hosts many celebrities as angered teachers demand better breadwinning conditions, the world keeps rollin' along.
 On the local scene 15 boys turn Gasparilla into a mini-Mardi Gras; oh yes, simple people still judge a book by its cover, what a pity, Bonnie and Clyde lived so long ago and Bobby Dylan never came,
 and the world just kept on rollin' along, Peace . . .

Hey Bob!
 This is your "weird" friend. How about the master.
 What do you think he'll do without 3rd pd. PAD, especially you and Mike and me? Well, I'll sign off without becoming a great person. You Best wishes for a great future
 Jane

Cindy Hilton '68

Bob,
 Is a great guy
 who had a rough time in algebra. Don't ever forget the miserable times we had in Mrs. G speech class. Oh I hated
 it. Congratulations on not having to take the alg. II exam. Some people have all the luck.
 Best of luck
 Jane

To Bob
 A great guy with whom I spent many hours of practicing with the Young Folk. I hope you stick to singing because your voice yours should not be wasted.
 Your Friend,
 Salvatore Ciccarullo

Bob
 I don't know you
 as well as I wish
 but what I do know
 I like.
 Jane
 Pat.

AMERICAN YEARBOOK COMPANY

The 1968 Talon Staff would like to extend our thanks and appreciation to Jack Nilson, Jack Menendez, and the American Yearbook Company for help on this year's annual.

Bob,
This year
has gone by so fast! It sure doesn't seem like we'll be out in a little over a week. Best of luck to you in your coming years. My not to forget the great class of '68"
Sally Laker

Bob,
You're a real sweet guy. I hope you realize just how lucky you are going with one of the sweetest girls in all of Leno. You two make the cutest couple!! I hope you go together for a long time to come. Take care of Valli always.
Barbara Slusher

Bob, sweet guy with a great personality. Stay like you are and you'll always have a lot of friends. It's been fun to speak even though my grades don't show it. Best of luck after graduation. Brenda Hendricks '70

Bob,
You're a stuck-up creep - not really
you a pretty nice guy! I think.
Well, I hope your Bad improves
anyhow but be good anyhow
ok?? Love,
Karin

Bob, sweet guy who I have had the pleasure of getting to know. May you have all the luck in the world
in whatever you do.
Love ya!
Diana

Bob,

Well the old year has ended and I'm going to have to say this (you better sit down) I'm really going to miss you. Shore. You a real great guy and I really dig your personality. I'll never forget some of the great times we've had together. Remember the time the young folks was back stage and I went to visit you all. We've really had some experiences that couldn't be printed.

Your singing really made the young folks what it is today (terrific) you a real great guy and your the type of person that people want to be with and goof off with. Your one of the few people that I know that has a free and fun loving soul. You a real considerate person and you are also a great ~~opponent~~ singer, opps, I mean bass. Well you sing so well I never tell. I want to thank you for the hard time you gave Mr. Marshall cause he needed it after he <sup>spurs</sup> kicked me out of choir. Tell your girl friend that she is the luckiest <sup>spurs</sup> person in the world for having you for a girlfriend change that to a boyfriend. We all can't be perfect can we Bob. But you sure try harder. Stay as sweet as and you'll really get not very far. May God Bless you & keep a protective hand over you and the ones who are close to you. Love ya,

[illegible]

Bob,
There aren't many people that just automatically "become a very good friend of mine." (by some chemical creation, I guess!)
I know there are people to be a special love, or humor, or understanding — thank you for being one of those rare people.

Love,

Bob,
Leto has been wonderful these last two years. I have so many memories and I believe my fondest is that of the "Young Folk." We have had so much fun and we are great. I could never forget all the fun we had at Ted Mack with me hustling in y'all's room. (That didn't sound correct). Anyway, I can't say goodbye because we will still be making money this summer. I hope we will always be friends and I'll see you at Florida when you become one of us Gators.

Love
Cheryl

To Robert h. Mason
I hope that all your future plans come true and you never meet with the bad men of Vietnam.

Bob,
 what a great year and what a great summer
 to be a senior and good luck
 in the future
 for you
 for you

Bob,
 To a great singer
 and hell of a nice guy
 Good luck to you and God Bless
 Roy Welch

Bob, you are a real friend
 and a good singer
 I wish you always and good luck always
 Bob

Bob,
 It has been
 a great year in D.A.D.
 this year. You have a great personality
 so stay that way
 always. Best of luck
 in the coming year.

Bob
 Haven't really gotten to know you that well but from what I have observed you are a pretty neat kid and will most than likely go very far
 in anything you endeavor

I hope for you
 a smoothly paved road bordered with happiness and good worth

Good luck to you (and yours)
 Chris

Bob,
 Don't know how well you are
 but I hope you are doing well and good luck
 in the future
 for you
 for you

Bob
 a great guy, I sure am glad we had P.A.D.
 together. Best of luck
 with every thing you do

Bob
 We have went through a lot this year in homeroom
 and Eng. I hope our friendships will not end at the end
 of school
 Best of Luck

Bob,
 So a wonderful guy, who has finally made it through
 H. School. Good luck
 in the future.
